

At Shah's we cook curries like our mother used to make with recipes that bring to life the authentic flavour and character of the East. Meal times were an event; a special occasion to share with the family and provide memories that would remain forever, that is why our first restaurant Shukur's – was lovingly named after her.

Following the success of Shukur's Brasserie in Kineton, we now welcome you to Shah's in Wellesbourne. Shah's is a restaurant which encapsulates our mothers wonderful philosophy of harmony and friendship with the finest quality food and distinctive traditional cuisine, packaged in a atmosphere of ambience and comfort.

We aim to provide the best dishes in true Bangladeshi style, imaginatively served and prepared by our celebrated chefs with unique special recipes. Some of our mothers own favourites, all prepared with the freshest of local produce. We believe in redressing the balance of those Indian restaurants which cater for 'commercial' curries produced more with quantity, rather than quality in mind.

All our dishes are cooked to order and can take longer to prepare during our busiest times.
